AIRPLANE MAKES LONG DELAYED VISIT TO CITY

After waiting for three days in order to secure favorable weather conditions, the War Stamp airplane paid a "flying visit" to Newark at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon. The aviator made a flight over the entire city and about over the center of the city did several flip flops and then made a spiral dive, giving an excellent exhibition. After dropping numerous cards boosting the War Stamp sale the machine flew east.

HIGH SCHOOL HONORS HEROES WHO DIE ON FRENCH BATTLEFIELDS

Classmates of Gray Swingle and Ralph Laughlin Attend Ceremony and Pastor Who Addressed Class in 1913 Delivers Eulogy.

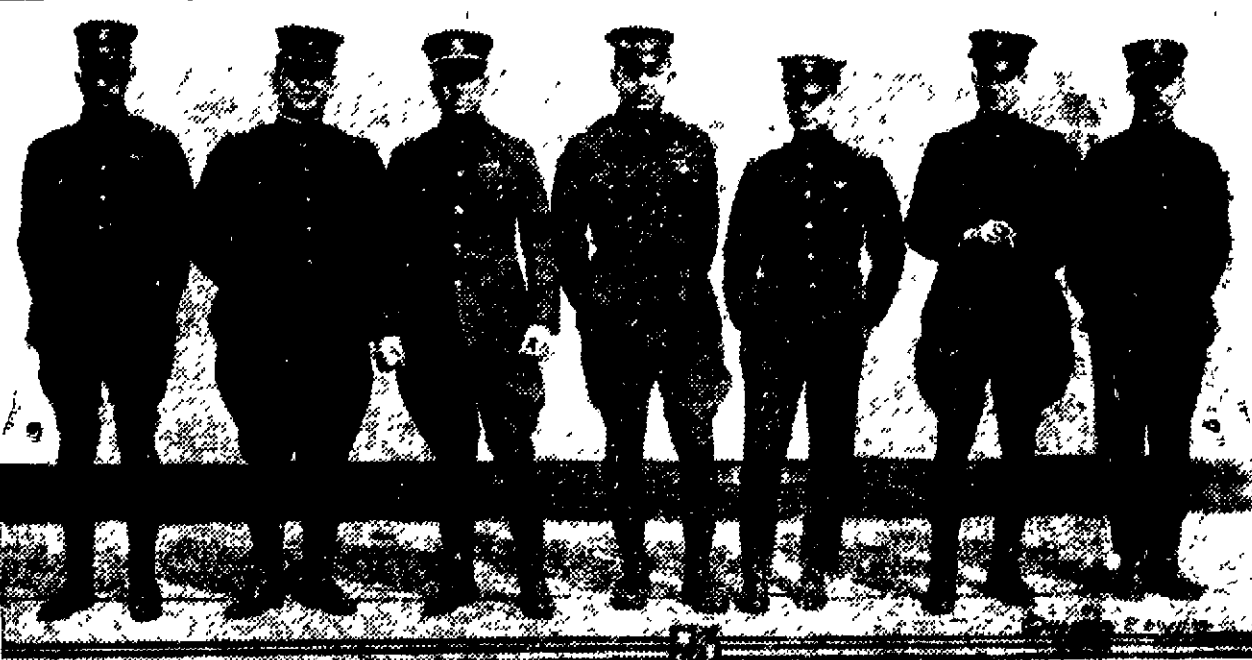

To the memory of two graduates, two men who sleep in the battle fields of France where they made the supreme sacrifice, a bronze tablet commemorating Sergeant E. Gray Swingle and Lieutenant Ralph W. Laughlin, was unveiled at the Newark high school this morning.

A coincident in connection with the death of these graduates of the local school is the fact that one was the president and the other the vice president of the class of '13, and attending the services this morning in the High school auditorium was the treasurer of the class, Private Paul Edwards, who has been but recently returned from France, where he was gassed and wounded. He still uses a cane as the result of his injuries.

At 8:50 o'clock the students filed to their places at the High school orchestra played the overture. In the audience were the families of the deceased soldiers and many of their friends. Superintendent O. J. Barnes, who was principal of the school when Sergeant Swingle and Lieutenant Laughlin were in school, told of school life of the men to be honored, the part they played in all the school activities, their abilities as scholars, their leadership in school endeavor, their interest in athletics and the leading of their and in any school work. He told of the high ideals which always actuated them and of the part they took in securing and financing the school play ground.

Harold Wilson, also of the class of '13 and who recently returned from France after he had been transferred from the Rainbow Division, outlined the part that division had played in the great war and some of his experiences while with it. At the graduation of the class of '13, Rev. G. Bohon Schmitt delivered the valedictory address. At that time his subject was "Ideals as Pivots in the Religion of Jesus the Christ" and to him was given the honor of dedicating the boys who had lived up to these ideals. Rev. Mr. Schmitt took as his theme, a text from St. John,

AUSTRIAN PARLIAMENT BANISHES ROYALTY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Vienna, Thursday, March 27.—The government has introduced in parliament a bill which provides for the abolition of Austria-Hungary in which the house of Hapsburg-Lothringen in perpetuity is decreed, together with the banishment of all members of the house as well as of the house of Bourbon-Patma (the family of former Emperor Zita). The German Austrian republic is proclaimed the owner of the real and personal estate of the former imperial house, the net proceeds of which may be used for the benefit of citizens whose health was impaired through the war or of families which have been deprived of their bread winners. The private property of ex-Emperor Charles and the members of the imperial household is to remain untouched.

Vienna reports received on Thursday stated that an embargo had been placed on the private fortune of former Emperor Charles until his official abdication had been received at Vienna.

MAY CALL 50,000 VOLUNTEERS FOR 3-YEARS SERVICE IN EUROPE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, March 28.—An immediate call for 50,000 volunteers for service in Europe has been prepared by the war department and probably will be published tomorrow. As an incentive to enlistment the men will be offered early duty in France as a relief for men in the expeditionary forces who wish to return home.

Enlistment in this special force will be for three years. The men will be concentrated at Camp Meade, Maryland, and probably will be sent overseas in contingents 1000 strong.

NEWARK MAY SEND DELEGATION TO GREET LOCAL BOYS IN 37TH

A number of the Newark boys have arrived overseas with the 37th division and when the different platoons of that organization parade in Columbus next week many friends and relatives will be present to welcome them home. The 134th field artillery, to which about 75 Newark boys belong, the 121st military police and the 121st ammunition train also have many Newark boys as members. The ammunition train will not parade in Columbus.

Today invitations were received asking Newark to send over organized bodies to march in the parade, with banners and pennants telling where from.

It has been suggested that the Boy Scouts be sent overseas that autos be provided for the purpose. Chief Scout Master L. P. Franklin has about 200 boys in uniform who would be more than pleased to make the trip. He also has two young men who have taken charge of the scouts and are drilling them at stated periods. The drill masters have been out of town. Captain Verne Priest has interested himself in endeavoring to get an organized body over to the Capital City as the old Ohio National Guard is a part of the 37th division.

The change in time promises to be uniform in Ohio this year. Last year many eastern Ohio cities did not move their clocks forward and for most part Ohio was on the same time during the summer months of last year. Train schedules, however, and central time points in Ohio have signified their intention of advancing their clocks on the daylight saving plan, in order to make their time conform to the time used by the railroads.

OHIO WILL MOVE CLOCKS FORWARD; NEWARK BUSINESS IS UP IN AIR

Columbus, March 28.—All Ohio will set its clocks ahead one hour tomorrow night in compliance with the daylight saving plan enacted by congress and tried out for the first time last year. Railroad's will change time at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Train crews are under instructions to stop at the nearest station at that hour, set their watches ahead one hour and report to train dispatchers for instructions under the new time.

All Ohio may turn the clock hands forward one hour at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, but no one in Newark knows what Newark business houses, factories and homes are going to do. There is a strong sentiment against the change but because of the failure of anyone to take the lead, the matter at noon today was "up in the air." Factory heads were uncertain what would be done and business men had about reached a conclusion to ignore the federal plan, were just about as certain as the factory men in the absence of any concerted action.

HOLDUP FOILED BY MAN'S CRIES

B. & O. Operator is Felled By Blow Over Eye But Men Flee as Help Comes.

An attempt to hold up Sylvester Klein, chief operator at the Baltimore & Ohio offices, in this city, by three footpads was frustrated at 2:15 this morning by Klein's cries for assistance, which brought Nacht Kaagardern Samuel Chester and a couple of assistants to the dispatcher's rescue. But not until he had been delivered a stunning blow over the right eye which knocked him down and stunned him. Klein, who went on duty at 4 p. m. and leaves at 2 o'clock midnight, had just turned the corner of the Jackson hotel to go up Canal street to South Second street, when three men jumped out and commenced him to throw him down. One of the men, who was armed with a knife, struck Klein on the head and another on the chest. Klein, who was unarmed, cried out for help. The dispatcher, who was on duty at the time, heard Klein's cries and rushed to his aid. He found Klein lying on the ground, bleeding from the head and chest. He picked Klein up and carried him to the hospital. The three footpads fled. The police are searching for them.

SOLDIER TELLS OF HOLDUP AND ROBBERY

F. P. Simons of Hebron, a discharged soldier from one of the eastern cantonments, claimed that he was held up and robbed of $100 along the railroad tracks last night. The matter was reported to Police Chief James Sheridan by a business man who stated that Simons had told him of the holdup. The soldier claimed that he had purchased a ticket to New York or to New Orleans and was on his way to New York or to New Orleans when he was held up and robbed. He said that the robbers took his money and his ticket and left him on the tracks. He said that he was very frightened and did not know what to do. He said that he was very tired and had been on his feet all day. He said that he was very hungry and had not eaten since the morning. He said that he was very cold and had no coat. He said that he was very alone and had no one to help him. He said that he was very scared and did not know what to do. He said that he was very tired and had been on his feet all day. SENATOR WRIGHT ASSERTS ALLEGED BRIBE WAS CLUB

Tells Committee Chiropractor Lobbyist Would It Was Plot

ATTORNEY GENERAL SAYS
SENATOR IS EXONERATED

Declares Delehanthy Offered Him $2000 Not To Oppose Bill

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, March 28.—That Representative Frank Delehanthy of Cleveland had approached him with an offer of a bribe of $2000 if he would not speak against the chiropractors non-medical practice bill and that Dr. R. H. Skeels, chief lobbyist for the chiropractors had admitted to him that this was part of a plot to "get a club over his head" was the direct testimony given today by State Senator Howell Wright of Cleveland before the joint committee of the legislature investigating bribery charges.

Before calling Senator Wright to the stand, Attorney General Price explained to the committee that Wright had already given him a full and free statement of the entire matter and inasmuch as considerable had been published concerning Wright's connection with the bribery charges that he should be given an opportunity to make a statement. The attorney general said he is satisfied that Wright is free of any wrong doing in the matter and his appearance before the committee amounts to an exoneration, it is said.

Wright testified that on February 25, the day the chiropractors bill was to come to a vote in the senate, Representative Delehanthy came to his seat in the senate and asked him what he was going to do on the bill.

"I told him I was going to do everything I could to defeat it as it was a bad bill," said Wright. "Delehanthy said to me: 'I have been approached and have been authorized to say to you that there is $2000 in it for you. You will not speak against the bill, but you may vote as you please,' Wright continued.

"I asked Delehanthy if he realized what he was saying. I told him he would get himself into trouble and to run along, but he said: 'I am not going to run. I am going to stay here and fight for the bill.' After lunch on the same day Delehanthy talked to me again and said: (Continued on Page 13, Col. 2)

STRIKE TO SUPPORT REDS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Vienna, Thursday, March 27.—A railroad strike has been called and threatens to spread to all the roads in this country. The strike was called partly for higher wages and partly because of sympathy with the Hungarian revolution. It is feared it may lead to the establishment of a Soviet republic in German-Austria.

The trouble began last night when men employed by the Southern Railroad walked out. All traffic over this road is at a complete standstill, even allied food trains from Trieste being stopped. As a result of this interruption of transportation of supplies, Vienna is threatened with famine. The situation is considered extremely grave.

MINSTREL CHORUS AND COMEDY GOOD

High School Boys Put on Good Show Under Direction of Faculty Members.

With chorus numbers splendidly developed, the comedy running smoothly and the solo numbers well selected, the presentation of the annual high school minstrel was enthusiastically received by an audience which taxed the capacity of the high school auditorium last night.

Two performances were arranged for yesterday, matinee and evening, under the direction of an executive committee composed of C. W. Klopp, L. G. Millisor and H. F. Moninger of the faculty.

The show opened with an extended medley of popular, college numbers, interspersed with ballads, by a large chorus composed of the following:

The fun of the show was carried on by the ends, James Baruxes, William Barrie, Seward Legge, Reul Cochran, Ralph Stowell and Leon Kling, aided by Glenn Kreider, who made a splendid interactor. Cochran sang "My Chocolate Soldier Sammy Boy," while Barrie gave "My Barney Lies Over the Ocean."

Donald Cross, who has been singing since he was a small lad, sang "Till We Meet Again," most effectively. "Beautiful Ohio," one of the song hits of the day was rendered by Don Neely, who has a very pleasing voice. Sheldon Eckfeld, who sang last year, showed a great improvement and his "Gypsy Song" from "Anytime" was given with the ease of a professional and his voice is attractive.

The premier ends were Edwin Essington and Fred Cross, and these youthful comedians successfully climaxed the work of the other end men. Cross had a song that proved a hit, "How You Get On in the Farm, When They Have Seen Paris." Essington, who possesses the gift of entertaining, had numerous clever quips and his song "You'll Find Old Dixie Land in France" concluded the first part.

The following orchestra played the first part and the show was directed by C. W. Klopp; Minor Mitchell, Minner Taylor, Aaron Swartz and Evan Pyle, violin; Robert Northey, pianist; Harold Norris and Merrill Mason, cornets; Roger Stoffer, clarinet; Frank Keenen, trombone; Elsworth Davis, drums.

The second part opened with a ballet dance, "The Dance of the Fairies" by Mary Carl, Martha Grace Miller, Virginia Martin, Mary Windle and Dorothy Wilson. Of exceptional grace, it is to be regretted that the music was so fast as to mar the grace of the dance. The mystery of Glenn Kreider as the colored dwarf, as arranged by Kreider and Leland Windle was amusing and a fancy dance was given by Derbert Faust and Daniel Perry.

Such interest was manifested in the exhibition of the different wrestling holds by Leslie Fishbaugh and Walter Hamann. A short bout followed the exhibition.

One of the best bits of the show was a sketch "Dirt Cheap" of which Carl was the star. He was a real comedian, clever as a Hebrew impersonator, and his song number was extremely funny. The other members of the cast were: Fred Cross as "Harry Ivanstein," Seward Legge as "Soup," Raymond Johnson as "More Soup," Glenn Kreider as "Income Tax Collector," Sheldon Eckfeld as "Prospective Customer."

Edwin Essington did some clever comedy work preceding several numbers by the saxophone quartet composed of Essington, Larson, Shannon and Gamble.

The play concluded with a jazz band number by Essington, Kuster, Norris and Northey.

The high school orchestra played the overture and after the play, the following members making a splendid organization:

PASTOR RELEASED BY CONGREGATION

Dr. Brälsford's Resignation as Pastor of Granville Church Is Accepted— Goes to Cleveland.

(Special to The Advocate.)

Granville, March 28.—Dr. H. R. Hundley, chairman of the advisory board of the Baptist church, presided at the business session which followed the mid-week prayer service in the church, Thursday evening. Action was taken on the resignation of Dr. Brälsford from the pastorate which was presented two weeks ago. No one seemed willing to make the motion until a member of the board rose and pointed out the fact that there was no way of evading or avoiding such action; that Dr. Brälsford had considered this move and that he feels that he should accept the call to his old church in Cleveland; that under such circumstances this church could do no less than release him. The necessary motion was made and carried, which releases Dr. Brälsford as pastor of the Granville Baptist church on May 1. A committee was appointed composed of Dr. C. L. Williams, Rev. T. G. Field and Prof. E. S. Spencer, to draw up resolutions of respect and appreciation for the splendid work accomplished in this church during the past five years together with the love and good wishes of the congregation which will follow him to his renewed charge. Reports on the centennial celebration of the church, made by W. A. Holmes, discourages the hope of observing the centenary in June as had been planned, and the committee on publication of the memorial history feels that several hundred subscriptions to the volume should be secured before placing the manuscript in the hands of the publishers. Prof. F. B. Baugton requested that the entire congregation resolve itself into a committee of the whole, each member to send subscription blanks to old members of the church removed to other fields but still interested in Granville and Denison. Members of a pulp committee will be recommended at the annual meeting next Thursday evening, April 3, by the advisory board.

Ed Evans, who suffered severely from an explosion in his plumbing shop, Wednesday afternoon, is reported as improving. His condition, while still painful, is more encouraging, and here is held out by Dr. Hatch that his eyesight may be saved even though the vision may be greatly weakened.

The storeroom recently vacated by J. W. Ackley's pharmacy, is being redecorated and refitted and will be a restaurant by F. C. Gordon, who will take possession as soon as the work is completed, giving up his present quarters. This room, which adjoins and is owned by the Granville Bank company, will eventually become a part of more commodious bank headquarters—perhaps this summer, perhaps later.

W. H. Kussmaul of The Times, sends enthusiastic descriptions of life as lived at Hot Springs, Ark., where at present the weather corresponds to the normal brand enjoyed in Ohio in May and June.

Mrs. Leonora Sedgwick Watson of Chicago, formerly of Granville, is taking the southern route to the Pacific coast, where she expects to tour California with friends, in an automobile, after having going on to Alaska, thence to Japan.

For the first time since the war began the call of the Red Cross in this community has been ignored. Each day this week two headquarters open waiting to receive the used clothing asked for, and the number of the motor unit has held herself in readiness to carry the supplies to Newark headquarters. The rooms will remain open tomorrow. The committee, organized by the A. F. F. W. to compile and publish a bulletin giving the official record of the war-work done by the Granville committee in its 20 months of existence, met yesterday at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Fred McGilton, and the members of the committee are pleased with the prospect of offering a really artistic as well as complete and concise official statement of the activities of the Granville women. Miss Minnie Jones will take orders for the printed report.

Robert W. Harris, of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Flory, belonging to the headquarters department of an infantry unit of the 27th division which has landed, and Lynn Atwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atwell, is another Granville boy belonging to the division, who may be expected home soon.

There's a reason why nearly every body freckles in March, but happily there is also a remedy for these ugly blemishes, and no one need stay freckled. CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES Tells Safe and Simple Way to Treat and Relieve at Home.

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, of if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmin (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should become easy, while the distressing head noises, headaches, dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and mucus dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. It is said that nearly ninety per cent of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh and there must, therefore, be many people whose hearing may be restored by this simple, harmless, home treatment. T. J. Evans. (Adv.)

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Often Followed By Serious Gastric Ulcers, Says Authority. Most Frequent Cause of Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Says Keep Stomach Sweet With Magnesia.

"Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, sourness, gas, heartburn, food fermentation, etc., are caused nine times in ten by chronic 'acid stomach,' says a well known authority. Burning hydrochloric acid develops in the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining and often leads to gastritis accompanied by dangerous stomach ulcers. Don't dose an acid stomach with peptic or artificial digestants that only give temporary relief from pain by driving the sour, fermenting food out of the stomach into the intestines. The acid, which caused the trouble, remains in your stomach as dangerous as ever. Instead, neutralize or sweeten your acid stomach after meals with a little hot water and Bismarck Magnesia and not only will the pain vanish but your meals will digest naturally. There is nothing better to sweeten and settle an acid stomach than a good magnesia bath. It soaks up the harmful excess acid much as a sponge or blotting paper might and your stomach acts and feels fine in just a few minutes. Bismarck Magnesia is the special magnesia that should be used for this purpose and it can be obtained from any reliable druggist in either powder or tablet form. It is safe, reliable, easy and pleasant to use, is not a laxative and is not at all expensive.—Adv.

AMERICA'S IMMORTALS

THEODORE PETERSEN, Sergeant, Med. Det. 151st Field Artillery. Sergeant Petersen (deceased) was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action at Peronne, France, March 5, 1918. Mortally wounded during an enemy bombardment, Sergeant Petersen, though himself too weak to minister to other wounded soldiers, directed his associates in treating the wounded and refused to receive assistance himself until all the others were cared for. When gas shells began to fall in the vicinity he directed the men in adjusting their masks and was the first to test for gas. He continued to supervise the treatment of the wounded, despite the fact that he was suffering great pain, until the arrival of the surgeon, who sent him to the rear. He died on reaching the hospital. His mother, Mrs. N. J. Petersen, lives at 99 Central avenue, Oshkosh, Wis.

Economy in Buying Clothes

CLOTHING economy is not a matter of buying cheap clothes, but rather of getting full value in wear for every cent invested.

The average buyer of clothes takes the word of the salesman for the wear of the material. He trusts the mirror or an obliging friend to tell him "how it looks."

A better way to be certain of both looks and wear is to look for the label:

HIGH ART CLOTHES

MADE BY STROUSE & BROTHERS, INC., BALTIMORE, MD.

WEARING OUT ROADS.

When the automobile crowd get out on their pleasure drives this season, they are going to find that the highways have not held up through the strain of the war period. Many millions have been spent in road improvement, and for much of it there is but little to show. These motorists will bitterly complain of the parsimony of the tax payers. Yet their own careless habits have been a big factor in wearing out the streets.
One habit that has much to do with wearing out road surfaces, is the tendency of drivers to follow along in one track and wear down two parallel lines created by their wheels. This not merely wears the road faster than distributed travel would, but it uncovers sharp rocks that cut the tires of the cars. Of course this does not apply to brick roads or to concrete drives such as we have between Newark and Granville and along the National pike.
Some people urge the building of wider country roads to distribute the wear. That would help somewhat. But widening the road makes it cost a lot more. The majority of motorists would prefer a narrow strip of hard surface carried twice the distances, than to have a broad road through country districts. And it is noticed that on many country roads that have been built pretty wide, there exists the same tendency for travel to follow certain tracks.
If drivers were more careful to keep toward the right hand side of the road, they would make conditions safer for everyone and would tend to spread the traffic out. And every driver should feel that he must personally cooperate in all measures to preserve the road surfacing. He may say that the little wear his machine gives would make no difference. But if everyone takes that attitude, a road will wear out in half the time it should.
If every motorist would keep out of beaten tracks, maintain moderate rates of speed, take corners and curves at a slow rate, it would make a tremendous difference in five years. Taxes would be less and the roads far better.

PEPTIRON IS GOOD

This Real Iron Tonic Combines Merit Economy and "Pepp."
Made from a formula that uses iron in most digestible form, pepton and gentian, great stomach tonics, and cod liver oil, the best vegetable remedies for the nerves, and also manganese, and other valuable nutrients—there's no question of the value of Pepton as a blood builder and strengthener.
The larger size of Pepton contains enough for a full month's treatment, while other so-called iron preparations contain only one half or less.
The "pepp" or peppermint, with which Pepton does its work is noted by everyone who takes it.
From the first dose the system responds to the treatment, and you realize you are at last using a medicine that is genuine, reliable, and gives you the right. Better get a bottle of Pepton today. Take two Pepton after each meal—then comes good blood, good appetite, and—pepp.

EXCESSIVE GAINS.

Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce announces that the first efforts of his Industrial Board, will be to reduce "excessive profits."
Most people's definitions of an excessive profit, would be the money that other people are making. They would find good and sufficient reason for any gains they could tack away themselves.
Nevertheless, many concerns do charge exorbitant prices for lines of goods in which they happen to have a near monopoly, or a large control over the market. A concern's reputation is frequently so thoroughly established by a tremendous campaign of advertising plus genuine merit in the article, that it can produce at a far cheaper rate than when it did only a small business.
The question must come to such a corporation, whether it will continue to maintain prices far above production expense, or base them on the actual costs, plus what would be considered a fair profit in other lines of business.
The temptation to grab the immediate dollar is very big. The majority of men would yield to it. But there are several objections to this policy. The fact must generally become known in the trade that there is a large profit in those goods. That is sure to stimulate sharp competition. Other people will have the courage to start in on big advertising campaigns, and the skill to make something equally good or a little better.
Great changes in trade fortunes occur nowadays. The firm that hangs to a high price too long will not come out as well in the end.
A fair price based on actual costs of production, giving a reasonable return, establishes a business on a sure and permanent foundation. It checks social unrest and must tend toward industrial peace and stability.

Question is asked what has become of the boy who used to rig up those woolen doughnuts and purses nailed to the sidewalk on April 1? O. well, he has no use for such kid tricks now, merely spends the day trying to make teacher think he knows something when he doesn't.

Formerly they used to have strict examinations admitting pupils to high schools and colleges. Now the fact they didn't learn anything down below is considered a good reason why they should be sent along to see if the upper schools can teach 'em anything.

Some one wants to know of those old fashioned folks that used to sing the sweet old songs like "O, Fair Dove" and "Gone Are The Days." Well, they were buried year before last, and their sons are twirling banjos over their heads in the jazz band.

Those riotous sounds of disturbance from the cross roads school house do not indicate that the Bolsheviks are murdering the population, but merely that Squire Lawbooks and Farmer Cornassel are debating the League of Nations.

Some one wants to know what has become of the old fashioned man who used to brag about the big amount of work he did. Well, he died some years ago, and his successor has gone on strike for a 40 hour week.

The only reason why some of the old conservatives don't run an automobile nowadays, is that they are afraid it will be thought that they approve of effete modern civilization.

The people who had women and children relatives tormented by the German submarines, have not so far got very excited about the German sufferings for lack of food.

The people who complain of the high cost of running the jails, are often the same ones who want the prisoners to sit around without doing anything that can compete anybody.

It's a good idea to erect welcome arches for the returning soldiers, but the arch they want is the door post to the old job of a better one.

The physicians are expecting a pitiable epidemic of stomach trouble demanding immediate relief to break out about May 28th.

The man that got off that stuff about woman kind is advancing at great strides, had evidently not seen the new bubble skirts.

The merchants who can't afford to advertise might also economize by putting smaller quarters and turning off their help.

The logical Bolsheviks are so hungry that they are proceeding to destroy all the facilities for producing food.

Rabbits, foxes and other game being scarce in Russia, there is nothing left to pop over but grand dukes.

Why are the doughboys so called? Because, except that the people knead 'em back here in Newark again.

The statesmen home from Washington are being informed by their constituents that it is no longer a congressman's sole duty to rise in the seat and holler "No."

If trouble breaks out, the place to look for the orators who are threatening armed resistance in the law, will be in bed with the bedclothes pulled over their heads.

Chicago having passed the 3,000,000 population mark, looks with contempt on rustic little rural villages like St. Louis, Philadelphia and San Francisco.

The most terrible punishment that that could be imposed upon these people that want to overthrow the government, would be to set them to work.

Some of these people who are so anxious to see the Willard-Dempsey fight, showed no interest in getting nearer the scrapping in France.

HUNGARY.

(Christian Science Monitor.)
Out of the mass of rumors, contradictory reports, and tobacco cables which go to make up the Hungarian situation as now set forth, it is possible to obtain a certain straining of truth, in spite of the fact that even the apparently most reliable news comes from a constantly changing and shifting line: that the Moscow Red army, well organized and efficiently led, is steadily moving west through the Ukraine with the apparent object of joining forces with the Hungarians; that this army has already overrun Galicia as far as Lemberg; all these reports would seem to be sufficiently confirmed from various independent sources to warrant acceptance.
Now, without the addition of a single alarmist rumor, the situation thus outlined is sufficiently serious to claim the most earnest attention on the part of the allied powers. As has often been pointed out in these columns, it is of the very essence of the present crisis that the Moscow Red army, well organized and efficiently led, is steadily moving west through the Ukraine with the apparent object of joining forces with the Hungarians; that this army has already overrun Galicia as far as Lemberg; all these reports would seem to be sufficiently confirmed from various independent sources to warrant acceptance.

As to the immediate effects of such a situation as this, no one can foresee them. The position of Rumania and of Czechoslovakia is precarious in the extreme, whilst any serious advance westward of Bolshevik forces in Hungary would bring them into direct conflict with the allied forces of occupation. Then the struggle with bolshevism would necessarily begin in real earnest. As long as this struggle was being carried on by an army of intervention on Russian soil, the wisdom and justice of such a policy was so persistently questioned, and had arrayed against it such an almost unanimous voice of history, that every action was crippled before it began. When, however, Russian bolshevism does as it now bids fair to do, crosses its own borders into an occupied country, and attempts to embark definitely on the achievement of the confessed League and Trotsky ideal of the conquest of the world for bolshevism, the situation will be entirely different. It is the possibility of such a situation that faces the allied world today.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.
(Saturday Evening Post.)
It is a poor senator who could not enormously improve the Ten Commandments on the Sermon on the Mount, or the Constitution of the United States. If the authors of the first two utterances should appear with the most mistaking arguments in support of them, it is the poorest kind of lawyer who could not pick up objections in detail, under hypothetical cases, twice as fast as the authors could adduce reasons for accepting the utterances. That is more or less the trade of lawyers. Given a body of men who want to raise hypothetical objections, the first paragraph of the Declaration of Independence would have provoked so many arguments that the document would have been under debate to this hour, and our dollars would be adorned with the image of King George.

If you take any possible constitution of a League of Nations as the last word that is ever going to be said on the subject, as fixing new and definite terms of international relations, and then set yourself to conjuring up hypothetical cases under which it might not work well, you would never get a League of Nations. And that is not forget—is exactly what some of the senatorial objectors want: no League of Nations, but substantially the old international system, which gave the great war its ample opportunity.
The draft of the league's constitution affords a working basis to begin with. As soon as the breath of life is breathed into it, like all living things it will begin to change. There will be modifications and amendments as experience shows the need of them.
The precise form in which the constitution of the league is cast is comparatively unimportant. The great thing is to avoid the underlying principle of friendly international organization and to get a settlement of Europe's affairs now that will reduce the danger of war to the lowest practicable point. That is what the objecting senators never would do. Whatever form the constitution was cast in, they would still find objections.

CENTRAL SCHOOL FORMS A CLUB FOR WILLIS DOYLE

The teachers and pupils of the Central school who organized a "Bring 'Em Back" club yesterday in honor of Robert Doyle, have just completed another club in honor of Willis K. Doyle, son of Robert Doyle, 215 Huggs avenue, whose present address is U. S. S. Northern Pacific, New York, care N. Y. Postmaster. Doyle was an eighth grade boy at the Central school. He withdrew and enlisted in the navy in November, 1917. The names on his "Bring 'Em Back" charter are: Cora B. Haughey (organizer), Dorothy Davis, Alma Ward, Ruth McCally, Herman Oden, Robert Edmunds, John Griffith, Robert Graesser, Elizabeth Krieg, Lillian Jackson, Robert Field, James Thompson, Gerald Bonham, Geo. Lane, Marie Penneken, Margaret Besanecney, Dallas Fairall, Billie Woodbridge, Thelma Horner, Carl Broome, Mary Lanning, Russell Williams, Mary Neighor, Dick Graesser, Francis Kennedy, Josephine Ford, Pauline Collins, Alison Grubb, Robert Wagenhals, Ralph Burkett, Elizabeth Horcher, Virginia Rutledge, Frederick Klerman, Virginia Best, James Danley, Harold Price, Bertha Zellecrow, Gerald Williams, Beatrice Rattenberg, Ruth Rattenberg, Franklin Anderson, Richard Field, Melvin Lytle, Alfred Roop, Emily Spencer, Mary Reel, Frederick Christian, John Taylor, Helen Shaffer, Harnet Miller, Elizabeth King, Thomas Mackay, Esther Phillips. The Central school teachers and pupils have pledged the purchase of War Savings Stamps greatly in excess of $1000. It takes $500 to form one club. Letters are now on the way to Kuster and Doyle giving a list of names of last year's $1000 War Savings society, having bought 200 W. S. S. in 1918. The War Savings committee desires the present addresses of Mr. Reyard and Mr. Jacobs in order that letters may be sent to them. Mr. Campbell will receive club charters to present to these two soldiers upon their return home.
The Home Building Association of Newark sold $107,075 worth of War Savings Stamp since 1918, and set a good record in the present campaign.

LOTS OF ENTERTAINMENT FOR BOYS ON RHINE

The Americans stationed at Duden-Luxemburg, do not have such a slow time according to Corporal Herbert Williams. He says that they have a show most every night and dance once a week and a holiday a week. Corporal Williams has been in the service three years and went overseas last June. He took part in several drives but came out without a scratch. He wrote the following letter to his mother Mrs. M. A. Williams of North 74th street.
"Everybody in the A. E. F. must write to their folks at least once a week, that is an order now. I sent you several cards of this kind but I don't believe you received them as you didn't say 'Well, there is not much news around here. It is nice weather but I believe very unhealthy. We had a few cases of flu here but I have escaped it so far and hope I don't get it. Well, we have turned our horses in and now have tractors and trucks which is much better and when I get home I may be driving a truck; but I don't expect to get home soon. I guess the regular army will be the last home but I think I will be home for next Christmas. That seems a long time away but time flies you know; but don't worry for I am O. K. and will be home when they are through with me here and I am hoping it won't be long. As I would like to see the old home town. I have seen a lot of places and big cities but I think old Newark is best of all. I suppose now you will say I am home sick but I'm over that now. Those in the hospitals are getting home first."
"I am having a pretty good time around here: we have a show most every night and a dance once a week; so you see it is pretty good. I was at a dance last night and had a good time. You ought to see the Luxemburgers dance or try to dance with one of them; do not dance like Americans and it is great to see some of the soldiers dancing with the girls. I will quit for this time as it is almost chow time, that is time for supper."

Did You Know
That the Morris-dance was for a long time associated with certain festive seasons in England? It was probably a development of the Morris-dance, or Spanish fandango. In earlier times it was usually danced by five men and a boy who was called "Maid Marian" and was dressed as a girl. There were also two musicians and the garments of the dancers were ornamented with bells tuned to different notes so as to sound in harmony. Robin Hood, Friar Luck and Little John were characters extraneous to the original dance and were introduced when it came to be associated with the May-games.

WOULD you willingly bring back the spinning wheel and its fatigue? Would you reinstate ANY of the time-consuming, drudgery methods of former generations? Of course not! Then why do you continue ways of doing kitchen work that even your Grandmother found enslaving?

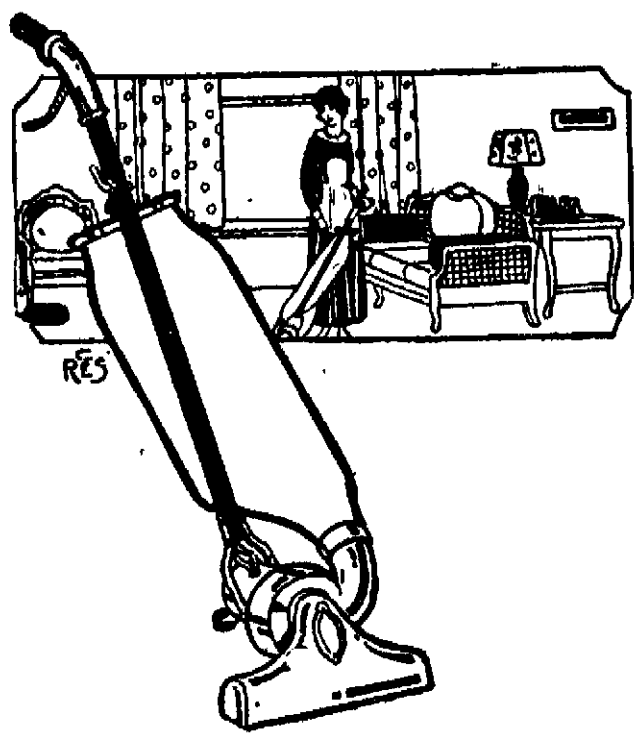

Why do you walk miles in preparing and clearing up after meals when a Hoosier will save you these needless steps? NEWARK BOYS ON RHINE GIVE BEST SHOW OF ANY UNIT IN 32ND DIV.

Newark and Licking county boys have set the pace for all the units in the 32nd division in the matter of entertainment, according to a letter from Leo T. Prior. His letter says that of all the "shows" given in the various billeted towns, that of the Licking county unit is the best. The boys have a good chorus and a good program of vaudeville which has made a hit with the other units of the division which have seen and heard the Ohioans on the stage.

Part of Prior's letter follows: "As members of the army of occupation and of the 32nd division, the members of the 158th brigade wear the insignia, a barred arrow of red of the division chosen because the 32nd shot through every line the bosche put before them. The distinctive insignia is worn on the left shoulder.

"Though the voice of the guns are still, many of the thrills of the front still are experienced in the imagination. The gun crews go to the guns, the signal and telephone men to their posts, firing data is sent down from post commander, and everything is in formality, as if a battle was on. Nothing else to do, a pleasant prospect is a possibility of a pass to Coleton, or a three-day leave to a rest camp. To describe the army of occupation would be easy with a good writer abroad, but for the writer, a voice is calling 'curtain'.

"The entire 32nd regiment is located comfortably in billets. Battery A is in Grossmaischied where regimental headquarters is located; B battery in Kleinmaischied. The 32nd is now to be on a motorized basis after being a horse-drawn outfit on the front. Captain Post is again with the battery after a leave of absence of six weeks as instructor in a school of fire in France. "On Saturday, Nov. 16, Battery B pulled out of position for the march to Germany, a hike of six days. Each day we marched an average of 15 kilometers and there were days when we marched over 30. We arose at 5 a. m. and usually pulled out about 8:30 a. m. Some days we ate lunch at noon and other times but two meals were served.

"The winter in Germany so far has been mild. It rains quite a good deal which makes for a cool damp atmosphere and an overcoat feels comfortable. The health record of the entire regiment has been wonderful and B battery has been exceptionally fortunate in this regard, there being little or no sickness.

"The food has been excellent, fresh beef twice daily with rice meal or corn meal for breakfast with bread, coffee and syrup, making a fine meal. There is a band concert once a week for an hour in each billeted town or regiment. "Santa Claus did not forget, for through the Y and Red Cross he sent his gifts and remembrance. Captain Post made the day long to be remembered in fun by arrangement, whereby a committee was placed upon a stage to judge the winners in a contest of speeches of thanks. As each man's name was called, he stepped upon the stage to receive chocolate, cakes, jam and if by request, he was asked to do so, which caused great laughter among the boys. Between acts, Battery B songsters, Bohan, Stutch, Vogel, Win termute rendered fine numbers.

"Shows put on by the regiment's sanitary trains and companies throughout the divisions which visit each billeted town twice a week, in way of entertainment for the boys. Some four or five shows have visited Kleinmaischied. The 32nd regiment show is best of all, a clean musical show, an excellent chorus and a good program of vaudeville, and George Rohan, in a big smile, is the star of the show. His acts is a scream from start to finish.

"There are many wild animals in our locality, such as deer, fox and wild hog. They are seen in the cedar woods. There is a law which reads, 'hunting is forbidden,' but some boys in Battery A got a deer or two before the burgomaster appealed to the high-courts. Richard Shaffer is game warden in Battery B and each day makes a round of miles upon the lookout for hunters. A picturesque scene in fields and surrounding hills each day is a shepherd with his flock of grazing sheep. The shepherd is a character such as is seen in Biblical pictures, a heavy beard and a large cape which hangs from his shoulders, and a dog which capers around at his heels.

"Eppie Frenier has charge of the bath house, the human comedy place where one is deloused, scrubbed, disinfected and otherwise purified.

"At services here in Grossmaischied the men and boys are seated on one side of the church and the women and girls on the other, which makes it very hard for our boys to keep awake. "The war is over, yet everyone likes to hear of experiences of those who have been to the front. A doughboy's story as told to artillerymen, while the 32nd regiment was on the Brabant-sur-Meuse position was one of interest, full of thrills. The story is written so much to review Jim's experiences in going over the top, but to note how the experience impressed him.

"Jim's picture was one of horror of a famous battle which proved the American boy a wonderful soldier. He was a big robust handsome fellow and a fine soldier.

"The day before Jim was to go over the top for the third time his infantry regiment was six or seven kilometers in advance of our heavy guns, which were all in readiness to combat in still another battle while the 32nd heavies were all set for a barrage. Jim's story follows:

"Well, boys, I have been over the top without a scratch, I don't suppose many of you know what that signifies, but I guess it means a designated objective to gain. Anyhow, to me it was the gateway to hell with the hinges knocked off the door opened and our launch going in.

"On the night of our march to the front line, which was quite a few kilometers it was very dark. On our arrival there we waited in silence for hours, which made me feel sort of creepy-icky, and experienced a sort of tension like that one would have while hanging around a cemetery after dark.

"Anyhow, I suppose you fellows will think I am a nut on sentiment when I tell you a thousand and one things which came to my mind in that dark night, and silence.

"Thoughts of God, and my mother, hit me pretty hard. Of late years I had been somewhat wayward from the church. Another question worried me, had I chosen my mother over consideration? These were among the thoughts and thoughts I had I bowed my head in prayer that I might live to see her again.

"In a little while I would be going over. Memories of the hundreds of times, when all of a sudden the hell gates opened and hundreds of big guns opened up from somewhere in the rear. The Huns hammered high explosive

What Do You Know About Ham?

A little pork story for the man who likes a good smoke

You've got to first catch your pig, of course. If he's young and tender, and fattened on good food, your ham will be good—it is properly cured and smoked. It isn't every packer who knows the secrets of good ham-making. A particular kind of brine for the curing and right sort of wood for smoking—and when it comes to the cooking—did you ever know of anyone who could roast a ham with savory spices and brown sugar better than an old Southern Mammy?

It is just so with a good tobacco. First, you must have the right kind. Second, it must be properly cured. Third, the blending must be done just as carefully and tastefully as Mammy cooks the ham. Honey Moon tobacco, the universally liked smoking tobacco, is first of all good. Nature and man's care have made it right. Then it's cured. Like vintage wine it "ripens" for years in selected casks and comes out mellow and mild like a ham smoked with corn-cobs. Then the day we marched on average of 15 kilometers and there were days when we marched over 30. We arose at 5 a. m. and usually pulled out about 8:30 a. m. Some days we ate lunch at noon and other times but two meals were served.

Now, so right away to the nearest tobaccoist—they all carry Honey Moon in your town—and get a 10c or 15c package of this sweet-flavored smoke food. If you don't like it the dealer is authorized to return your money. But you will be like 9 out of every 10 pipe smokers who have been looking for their tobacco. Just try Honey Moon once and you'll be ready to settle down and pass up all the rest.

see one's comrade fall wounded, perhaps seriously, shell holes everywhere, filled with mud and water, brush, weeds, masses of tangled barbed wire, wounded boys suffering, some screaming in pain. The Hun machine gun had worked effectively yet the boys in our company displayed wonderful spirit and courage. We tramped over dead bodies.

"The next day dawned like spring, with sunshine which was most welcome. Everything was quiet now after a night of hell. I took a long deep breath, for it was so good to be alive, after all.

"Jim made us good by, as his company was called upon to advance again. He said we were lucky to be in the heavy artillery and his parting words were 'be sure to give us good support.'

"The Greatest Little Revolution Since 1776"

Less than four years ago, when the sense of economic grievance that rankled in the hearts of North Dakota's farmers had been fanned to a flame by the refusal of the legislature to establish a State-owned terminal grain-elevator, a man named Arthur C. Townley jumped into a small hired automobile and began by a farm-to-farm canvass the organization of the Non-Partizan League. For months the old line politicians regarded this "flivver campaign" as a joke, but to-day they see Mr. Townley's league of farmers grown to a membership of more than 200,000 with a political organization in thirteen states, representation in the U. S. Congress, and completely in control of North Dakota's government.

The St. Paul Dispatch terms the league "the most revolutionary political machine that ever gained complete autocratic control of legislative affairs in any state in the Union," while the Minneapolis Tribune speaks of it as "Townleyism, the political prairie fire that is now raging in North Dakota and spreading to surrounding states," but as the New York World reminds us "North Dakota and her people will pay the bill and the rest of the country will profit by the demonstration."

In the course of an illustrated article, comprizing more than three pages in this week's LITERARY DIGEST, every phase of this movement is explained, together with public opinion upon it from all angles.

AMUSEMENTS

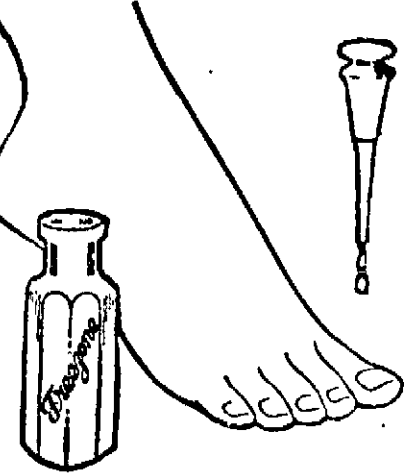

AUDITORIUM.
Mary Pickford Tonight.
Mary Pickford, always liked by movie fans, is being presented today at the Auditorium in the Artercraft picture "How Could You Jean?" This is a return showing for this feature and no doubt large crowds will see it. The Pathe News always right up to the minute with its current happenings will be an added feature.

In Old Kentucky.
Who that has seen "In Old Kentucky" can forget the wild and rollicking scene with the twenty or more pickaninnies who can forget how they laughed until they cried at their imitable antics as they sported, sang, danced and played until you believed, and rightly, too, that they enjoyed it as much as yourselves? and then there was the great race scene who can forget that? Don't you remember how the beautiful big grass heroine disguised as a jockey rode her lover's horse to victory, saved his fortune and won his heart, and how this same heroine swung across a mighty chasm sus-the art of the theatre in its best expression to witness his forthcoming appearance.

The Light of Victory.
"East is east, and west is west, and never the twain shall meet."
So said Kipling, but Orient and Occident did clash in "The Light of Victory." Monroe Salisbury's first Universal Special Attraction, which comes to the Auditorium theatre Sunday.
Jane Gavendee, a refined young American girl, stood face to face with Leina, dark-skinned maid of the tropic island of Tifofu, when she came to claim and reclaim Lieut. George Blanton, U. S. N., disgraced from the navy and counted as dead when his fellow-officers left him on this desert isle.
The girl from the States had been his fiancée; the maid of the South Pacific had been his common-law wife, and had plied woman's most ancient profession in order to supply him with the gin he needed to make him forget his disgrace.
Each claimed the shell of the man

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!
A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.
Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful!

the Metro play starring Viola Dana, which will be the attraction at the Alhambra theatre Sunday was in course of production.
In the instance a big military-looking motor truck, with a khaki top, was used by Director John Collins for the kidnapping of the young hero. It was making good speed along the Boston Post Road, with the car carrying the camera following at some distance behind. "grinding" the scene, when it was suddenly halted by two young soldiers wearing the brassards of the military police on their arms. The situation became worse and the two men more suspicious when they found the actor tied and gagged inside the big truck.
A comedy is also promised.

Blue Blood.
The surest sign of a man's mental dissolution, psychologists tell us, is flung out when he indulges in magnificent dissipation. Nero had his hanging gardens, Louis XVI had his Versailles with its love courts, and countless other rulers and men of power have had their pavilions, their pleasure palaces and their retreats, secret and otherwise.
Decadent modern millionaires have their "studios" and mountain lodges, concealed until some tragedy reveals their existence to the public. In view of this it is only natural that the authors of "Blue Blood," a Selexart drama starring Howard Hickman, should have revised a like form of indulgence for the principal character in their play. He is Spencer Wellings.

Monroe Salisbury, Who is Seen in "The Light of Victory," Auditorium, Sunday keeps a provoking and mysterious silence.

Suffice it to say that up to the present date Houdini has escaped from paper bags, zinc-lined tinno boxes, packing cases, padded cells, straight-jackets, insane cribs, willow hampers, iron cages, a United States mail pouch furnished with a rotary lock belonging to the United States Government, a large foot-hall, a large Doby desk with secret locks, a Siberian prison van.

of program at the Lyric Friday and Saturday entitled "Count De Jazbo" in which "Skinnie" Kimling the black face comedian impersonates an African Count breaking into society. Aided by "Fat" Hill as a bogus Baron the two find themselves in many predicaments and their efforts to get out of these situations makes a good fast one hour of solid laughter. Mirth, Music and Frivolity are in evidence with this clever company and don't fail to see the new show at the Lyric Friday and Saturday.

At Alhambra Theater—Monday and Tuesday.

ended by a rope and saved this same lover's life, and the hair-raising fight on the brink of the precipice? And you will remember, too, how the little heroine ran into the burning stable and saved Queen Bess, and oh, so many other things now that your attention is called to it. Well, we are all going to have a chance to see this grand old play again for it comes to the Auditorium tomorrow afternoon and evening and Manager Fenberg says to get your seats early for the advance sale is quite large.

Fit To Win.
Manager Fenberg wired the Public Health Service Department that the only date available at present for "Fit to Win" was next Wednesday, April 2nd and that the only way possible that he would show the feature would be to no mixed audiences. Ladies only at the afternoon showings and men at the night. This being acceptable to the Ohio representatives of the feature, Newark will get a chance to see the great talk of "Fit to Win." Further announcements will be seen in these columns on Saturday.

The Auctioneer.
This city is fortunate in having the promise of David Warfield, whom David Belasco will present at the Auditorium soon in "The Auctioneer." It is a foregone conclusion that this popular artist will get a reception here that will attest the admiration and affection in which he is held by local theatre goers. Mr. Warfield's present tour is limited to twenty weeks, ten of which were devoted to the Amphitheatre Opera House, New York. It will doubtless be a long time before he returns to this city, a fact that should be sufficient incentive for all those who agree

Love Me.
Manager Fenberg has arranged a very attractive program in conjunction with The Style Show to be given at the Auditorium on Monday and Tuesday next. The Paramount picture "Love Me," presented by Thomas H. Ince is a thrilling society drama and stars Miss Dorothy Dalton, noted screen star. Miss Dalton is surrounded by a strong cast and she herself has a role that fits her perfectly. The story is a straight forward and interesting narrative of the struggle of a girl to win the love and respect of her husband's family and incidentally to keep his against great odds.
Ivan D. Martin, who has promoted the style shows in the past that have been given at the Auditorium, brings his celebrated live models again on Monday and Tuesday and has promised Mr. Fenberg that he has the best ever this season.

ALHAMBRA.
Just For Tonight.
In "Just For Tonight," which comes to the Alhambra Theatre, beginning today, Tom Moore is the son of a capitalist. His impulsive good nature gets him into many scrapes and serves to make the old man regard him as an incorrigible, though lovable, ne'er-do-well. At last he gives his son a chance to make good, promising to condone past offenses if the boy succeeds in getting possession of some mining stock which has become suddenly valuable.
In trying to do this Tom Moore becomes acquainted with a charming girl and completely forgets about all serious business. Then he falls into another adventure. He changes places with a detective and goes as Lord Foxenholm to a home, where a jewel robbery has recently taken place. He is amazed and delighted to find his unknown girl a guest at the same country place.
He takes advantage of the situation and makes impressionable love to Betty. All is progressing beautifully when Lady Foxenholm is announced. Tom never dreamed that in assuming a name he was also assuming a wife, but his lips are sealed. He has to live a lie even though it costs him Betty's love.
The engagement runs over Saturday.

The Gold Cure.
It often happens that in the taking of motion pictures the suspicious-looking actions sometimes necessary to the making of the authorities and causes many embarrassing situations until some satisfactory explanation can be made. Such was the case when one of the scenes for "The Gold Cure," ton, the last of a long line of supposedly aristocratic ancestors, who marries a girl of fortune without telling her of the taint of madness in his blood. The play comes to the Alhambra theatre 2 days beginning Monday.

Thomas Ince presents DOROTHY DALTON in "Love Me," Paramount Pictures

Charlie Chaplin in "A Night in the Show" is an added feature.

Houdini Bound.
Houdini, the world-known master magician, appearing at the Alhambra theatre in "The Master Mystery," is a living enigma to not only his public, but to scientists, magicians, psychologists. He is credited with the power of muscular control, with the power derived from a secret knowledge of physical leverage, with the power of victory control, with the power of dematerialism. To all of which Houdini

They said to us

"We took 500 Kelly-Springfield Cords, and put them on cars loaded to weigh 5200 pounds. We sent those cars out in mid-winter to travel day and night over rough, frozen roads. As thousands rolled up, the drivers reported back, anxious to quit. We repeated our orders: 'Go on till your tires give out.' They said, 'They won't give out. We can't wear them out.' But they did, finally. It took 11,725 miles for rear wheels, 14,000 miles for front wheels, a general average of more than 12,000 miles. It wore out the drivers, wore out the cars, and nearly wore out the roads."

"That's why we know that Kelly-Springfield Cords are the greatest improvement since pneumatic tires were invented."

NUXATED IRON

Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, sets organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for their patients—Says anemia from deficiency—is the greatest cause of the health, strength, vitality and beauty of the modern American woman. Sounds warning against use of metallic iron which may injure the teeth, corrode the stomach and in some cases thereby do more harm than good; advise use of only nuxated iron, taken three times per day after meals. It will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances. Dispensed by all druggists.

THIS FARMER'S MORNINGS WERE WASTED FOR HIM

Unable to Work Before Noon Till Nerv-Worth Made Him Over.

This eloquent statement was recently made to the Nerv-Worth druggist at Fostoria, Ohio.

"I was in Glenn H. Eaton's Drug store and the demonstrator gave me a sample dose of Nerv-Worth. After learning what Nerv-Worth was for I purchased one bottle. Have taken it as directed. I am feeling so much improved I am buying a second bottle today and intend to keep taking Nerv-Worth till I am cured if possible. My trouble was nervousness and dizziness. In the morning I would be so dizzy and sick it would be noon before I would feel like work. The dizziness has left me and I am not so nervous and am feeling better in every way."

"CHAS. J. MORRIS, Route 1, Fostoria, O."

The Nerv-Worth demonstrator adds to the above that Mr. Morris said the dizziness left him after he had taken half a bottle of Nerv-Worth. Your dollar back if Nerv-Worth does not do for you what it did for Farmer Morris. T. J. Evans sells Nerv-Worth in Newark.

WAS AS PALE AS A GHOST

There are certain symptoms by which anemia, or lack of blood can generally be recognized. They are pallor of the face and lips, shortness of breath on slight exertion, such as going upstairs, and palpitation of the heart. The thin blood also causes digestive disturbances in many cases and there are frequently pains in the back and head.

"I had become so pale as to be almost a ghost," says Mrs. Andrew H. Hoyt, of Horseheads, N. Y., "and I suppose I overtaxed my strength for early last summer I nearly broke down entirely. 'I had so little blood that I was as pale as a ghost. I was troubled with headache and backache and also with indigestion. I was always tired and weak and had shortness of breath on the least exertion."

"From reading about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the paper I decided to give them a trial. I experienced relief within a week. My friends have remarked how much better my color is and I certainly feel a whole lot better. My headaches are gone, I am much stronger and am better able to attend to business. All this change has occurred in six weeks since I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

"If you have any of the symptoms that Mrs. Hoyt describes try building up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Eat nourishing food, exercise a little in the open air daily and watch the color return to cheeks and lips. You run no risk in giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial as they can not injure the most delicate system."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, 5 boxes $2.50. Write for free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."

Benjamin Remington Weld was formally installed as pastor of the Second Presbyterian church on Thursday evening. Revs. McKinney, Ferris and Whallon were all former seminary friends of Rev. Mr. Weld.

The ceremony took place at the Second Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Charles McKinney delivered the sermon incident to the occasion, and Rev. Calvin G. Hazlett gave the charge to the people.

The charge to the pastor was delivered by Rev. Pliny S. Ferris of Springfield.

Presiding at the meeting was the moderator of the Zanesville Presbytery, Rev. D. A. Greene of the Woodside Presbyterian church. Assisting him were Rev. Harry E. Porter and Rev. Walter W. Whallon, D. D., of Zanesville.

JACOBS MUST EXPLAIN MATRIMONIAL TANGLE

Sheriff Christerson of Cadillac, Mich., arrived in the city this morning and returned in the afternoon with H. D. Jacobs, ex-policeman, wanted on a charge of perjury. It also is alleged that he has two wives. Jacobs and wife were living about 40 miles from Cadillac, according to the story told by the sheriff, when he came to that city and secured work at his trade—painting and paper-hanging. He kept company with a young woman, teacher in the public schools. It is alleged that he secured a marriage license and gave the wrong initials of his name, and also claimed Ft. Wayne, Ind., as his home, and gave wrong statements regarding the girl's home and parents.

Later, there was a suspicion that all was not right, and Jacobs left the city with his second wife, and was later located in his old home in Newark.

OLD "Y" TEAM WILL MEET H. S. QUINTET

Old "Y" team will play a team composed of present Y. M. C. A. and high school players on next Wednesday evening at the high school gym.

This game is one of the annual reunions of the old Y team which won fame from 1908 to 1913. In these five years it lost but four games and one of them was to the Buffalo Germans.

The old Y team was composed of Livingston, now Denison, Denison, Black former Denison star and now a high school teacher; Reinhold of Reinhold Plumbing and Heating company; Woodward now manager of the Valley Over shoe store; Edwards former teacher in Newark high school, but now farmer near Johnston and Bert Lindemood who is a grocer in Utica.

This team was the state championship four years ago and feared by every team in the state.

The price of the game will be 25 cents and the money goes to the Y. M. C. A. to buy basket balls and for the gym.

HELD FOR THEFT; IS TAKEN TO DENNISON

The chief of police of Dennison arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and returned with Robert Brown, wanted in that city on a charge of jumping a bond bill and stealing a suit of clothing, shoes, and other wearing apparel. Brown had on the shoes and a cap which he is alleged to have purloined when taken into custody. It is alleged that he got credit in a number of drink emporiums and restaurants which will be out a considerable sum.

Noah's Ark in China.
A curious Chinese picture is of great antiquity, and is supposed to represent Noah's ark on the top of Mount Ararat. As is well known, the religious literature of almost every nation and race contains an account of a deluge, but a Chinese manuscript recently unearthed follows very closely the story as recorded in the Bible. It is particularly interesting in that the roof of the Chinese ark is of the gable variety associated with the Noah's arks which prove such entertaining toys for our youngsters. The Chinese picture, however, shows a double storied vessel, and so far from there being only one window in the roof, there are windows in every possible space. It would be interesting if some Chinese scholar or antiquarian could discover the exact date of that drawing.

Flowers in Salads.
The primrose is only one of the many flowers which graced the salad of the past. The old-time cook looked upon both flower garden and kitchen garden with the same calculating eye. Of herbs, all were seized—thyme, rosemary, marjoram, basil, lavender. And of flowers, the rose, the violet, the cowslip, the primrose, the lily of the valley, were never safe from the pot-hunter. Then there were the roots and buds of the field. Elder tops, burdock roots, "ash-keys," broom buds. All, indeed, was good that came to the cook. The flowers he used for coloring strups and custards. The roots he pickled. And his "sallets" comprised everything plantlike.

The early bird would go breakfasting regularly if it weren't for the earlier worm.

SENATOR WRIGHT

"These people came to see me again and they are coming over here pretty soon and want you to take a walk. They will pay you $300 down and the balance after the bill is passed. I warned him again; told him he was green and would get himself into trouble."

Wright said he went to his seat in the senate after his second conversation with Delehanty and told Senator Agnew about it, and asked him to stay close by him during the afternoon.

"After the senate convened," the witness continued, "a page brought me a note signed 'McKenzie' asking me to come to the lieutenant governor's office. I later sent a page to tell the person waiting to see me in the lieutenant governor's office that he could see me in the senate smoker. I knew there were a number of people in the smoking room."

Wright explained that he was not sure the note came from McKenzie, but suspected a trick.

It was McKenzie, he said, and testified that McKenzie had said to him: "I've just been tipped off that there is a frame-up and they are trying to compromise you. He said McKenzie told him that a detective had told him (McKenzie) that they had some marked money to pass to him. McKenzie expressed the opinion, Wright said, that 'the drys were back of the plot.'"

Wright later testified in the course of his examination that he was personally satisfied that the drys had nothing to do with it and that he had told Jas. A. White, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, he did not believe they had anything to do with it.

Senator Wright then explained that Senator Agnew had arranged a conference for him with Dr. Skeeles. Wright said he told Skeeles of Delehanty's proposition to which he said Skeeles replied: "Senator, I never felt you could be reached with money but we wanted our bill to pass and I thought we could use this as a club over your head to keep you from speaking against the bill."

Relative to the testimony before the committee that Nathan Cook, a Cleveland attorney, had solicited a $10,000 fee to be used in influencing a report which he was to make on legislation affecting the non-medical practitioners, Senator Wright said Cook had never discussed this report with him. He said he had three conversations with Cook relative to Dr. Tanaka, a Japanese chiropractor of Cleveland whom Cook represented as an attorney, once in Wright's office at Cleveland when Cook sought advice about medical practice laws, once in the office of the manager of the Leader News of Cleveland and again on the train coming to Columbus. He denied that at any time he authorized Cook to say to the chiropractors that for a sum of money his report to the governor relative to medical practice legislation could be changed. The report he made was the same as outlined in a public address before the State Medical association at Springfield, Wright said.

Senator Wright serving his second term in the state senate and is chairman of the public health committee. Following his direct testimony he was questioned by several members of the committee as to who McKenzie was. He said he was a lobbyist for the optometrists, he thought. He also said he thought he was with the "wets."

NEWARK PEOPLE PLEDGE TO AID 45 ORPHANED FRENCH CHILDREN

Support of 45 orphaned French children, pathetic victims of the great war, for which they were not responsible, has been pledged by Newark and Lockington county people, according to announcement made today by Mrs. Edward Thomas, chairman of the Newark committee for Fatherless Children of France. Mrs. Edwin C. Wright is chairman of the committee. In the past few weeks 23 additional children have been taken in charge by Newark organizations or individuals, the statement shows. Six of the children will be supported by the Newark Lodge of Elks and Woodside school has undertaken the care of two. The following individuals and organization have pledged the support of one child each: Mrs. A. J. Baldwin, Mrs. Carl S. Dayton, Delsy Rows club, Twentieth Century club, Mrs. W. W. Neal, Mrs. David Thomas and Miss Mary Buckingham, Sunshine Circle, King's Daughters, Marcel Bouche club, Mrs. John L. Bradfield, Mrs. William F. Webb, Young Ladies' Missionary Circle, Central Church of Christ, Mrs. Edwin C. Wright, Edwin C. Wright, Mary Sherwood, Martha Wright, Mrs. Charles B. Stevens, San Diego, Cal.

At the Chicago meeting of the national executive committee, it was voted that the work of the organization in the United States should be continued as long as France needs aid, and allows America the privilege of helping in bringing up of her millions of orphaned children.

Mrs. Riordan, Chicago, just back from work among children in the free nurseries of Nancy, told how urgent the work is among the children and of the brave mothers waging a losing fight against poverty and disease. Many children are going down physically who four years ago had been bright and quick in school, their brains now dulled for want of nourishing food and strength of body.

She asserted French women had never so needed the help of America as now, but that they are proud and would not ask aid. But if these widows of the men who have died in the struggle for liberty are to keep their children in their homes they must have help. Each case is thoroughly investigated.

The local committee will be very glad to communicate with anyone desiring to "adopt" one or more of these fatherless children.

Pilgrims' Hours of Relaxation.

Sober rather than dour, the Pilgrims knew the rudiments of social relaxation. The upper ranks or gentlemen delighted in evenings of conversation on suitable themes, enlivened with moderate portions of wine, beer or ale, and one reason why they did not indulge this taste often was the expensiveness of candles and the long hours of work.

Good Style Is Not a Matter of Locality

SO often one hears "she hasn't that well-dressed look that New York women have."

As a matter of fact, New York women are well-dressed. And did you ever stop to consider why they are?

It's because nine out of ten of them—the well-dressed ones, of course—are tailored women—a graceful flow of harmonious line from well-setting collar to trim hem.

To obtain that "well-dressed look" of the New York woman, enduring style is necessary. The kind that makes a woman as proud of her suit three months later as the day she bought it; fabrics that do not require constant pressing to "hold their shape"; and that perfection of detail that a woman knows as "careful finishing."

The "Wooltex" label is the unfailing mark of that well-dressed look. Each coat or suit is first correctly designed and then carefully tailored of such excellent fabrics that it keeps its graceful lines throughout the season.
